

If you hear this...

“If vaccines worked, we wouldn’t have diseases like flu, measles and mumps.”

You can say this....

“Actually, that’s not true. Vaccines train your immune system to fight illness. That lowers your chances of getting sick. And even if you get sick, it won’t be as bad.”

